

CHRIS COX PARTICIPANT REQUIREMENTS

Clinic Overview:

The Chris Cox Horsemanship Clinics (CCHC) take place at the beautiful Diamond Double C Ranch outside Mineral Wells, Texas. The price includes six (6) nights accommodation, meals throughout the course of the clinic, a stall with bedding for your horse and six (6) days of invaluable horsemanship instruction from Chris and his qualified instructors.

The course requires a horse that you are comfortable riding at a walk, trot and canter on a loose rein. At times you will be riding outside the arena and on the trail, so please be sure you are comfortable with your horse in these situations.

Note: Green broke horses are not suitable.

If your horse is not suitable or you prefer not to bring your horse, then please feel free to contact our administration with regards to the details of the Diamond Double C Horses-for-Hire package.

Please note, that this is a group clinic, so your skills must meet the minimum requirements, and your horse must be manageable. Although participants can each expect a certain amount of individual assistance as a normal part of the clinic, the group progress will not be compromised to assist under-prepared riders or those with unsuitable horses.

We highly recommend that you review the Chris Cox Instructional Program Part 1 DVD series before attending your first horsemanship clinic. This program will familiarize you with the terminology and with what will be expected of you from Chris and his qualified instructors.

These clinics are physically demanding on both the participant and the horse, so please come prepared. We also ask that you inform us on any physical problems or disabilities that will hinder you or your horse's ability, prior to attending the clinic.

Payment Terms:

Due to a specific number of people required for each clinic, we require a minimum deposit of $1,000 paid upon receipt of our invoice after your application is approved. The final balance will be due no fewer than 45 days prior to the clinic start date. You are responsible for calling to make this payment. If you fail to pay your remaining balance when due, we'll assume you have cancelled and you will be subject to the following cancellation provisions.

Cancellation: $300 of the deposit is non-refundable. The remaining amount paid is refundable only if the spot can be filled by another participant.
